Requests sanction to the acceptance of the Endowment of Rs 20,000 offered by Sir M. Visvesvaraya for the Endowment to carry three annual prizes instituted for the Lingayat students of the Sharada

NOTES AND ORDERS.

The Municipal Commissioner has requested sanction to accept the Endowment on the ground that it is similar to the case of the late G. Venkatasubbaiya, whose endowment of Rs 2700 was accepted in G.O. dated 17th September 1937. The late case (of Mr Venkatasubbaiya) is not quite similar to the present case but it is somewhat different from the case of Mr Venkatasubbaiya. The entire amount the interest on the corpus of the endowment amount of Rs 2700 was not payable to the ~~mother~~ wife for life ~~mother~~ a portion of the interest viz the interest amount on Rs 1500 and the interest on the balance of Rs 1200 was payable to the charities specified by him and the whole of the interest was ordered to be paid to the charities after the death of the donor. But in the present case the full interest amount of Rs 300 is suggested to be paid to the donor herself during her life time and thereafter to the charities decided, on the assurance of the donor that out of the Rs 300, about Rs 100 would be paid by her for expenses of the deities etc stipulated by him and the balance of Rs 100 would be utilised by her for her maintenance. There is no precedent to this case. If the donor agrees to the payment of Rs 100 to the charities directly by Govt without ~~to~~ her ~~husband~~ during her life time or indirectly through her husband of the balance of Rs 100 to her for her maintenance for her life time. the case ~~may~~ may perhaps be ~~considered~~ considered as falling within the purview of the precedent quoted by the Revenue Commissioner

~~or~~ Financial concurrence is required to sanction the proposal
